Once all of the required fields are completed and the file has been placed, the ‘Upload’ button will become active. If this isn’t what you are seeing on your end, you will want to touch base with your IT team to ensure you do not have any firewall issues preventing you from uploading your response.

Q: Are exhibits included in the 35 page count limit?

A: Yes.

Q: With respect to Section Six, Item. D.1.: Should bond issues in which the firm serves as co-senior managing underwriter (but not bookrunner) be considered “co-manager” or “senior manager” engagements?

A: These engagements should be classified as Senior Manager. Please include a footnote indicating that the firm served as a non-bookrunning Co-Senior Manager.

Q: May responding firms communicate with FHFC and staff about non-RFQ related items (e.g., market updates and commentaries) during the RFQ selection process?

A: Yes.

Q: Does the 35-page limit to the Response include the cover letter, Table of Contents page, Disclaimer page, etc. (or just the body itself)?

A: Responses should not exceed the 35 page limit in their entirety.

Q: With respect to Section Six, Item. D.1.: Do we need to provide underwriter spread breakdown and details on Co-Managed transactions, where we were not involved in negotiating the spread terms?

A: No.

Q: With respect to Section Six, Item. D.2.: Do we need to provide Table 3 if we are not proposing our involvement on Multifamily financings?

A: No.
