RELIANCE-ANDREWS ASSOCIATES, LTD.

Petitioner,

FLORIDA HOUSING FINANCE CORPORATION

Respondent.

PETITION FOR WAIVER OR VARIANCE OF THE QUALIFIED ALLOCATION PLAN’S REQUIREMENT FOR RETURNING HOUSING CREDIT ALLOCATION AND FOR EXTENSION OF THE PLACED-IN-SERVICE DATE

Petitioner Reliance-Andrews Associates, Ltd., a Florida limited partnership ("Reliance-Andrews") petitions Respondent Florida Housing Finance Corporation (the "Corporation") for a waiver or variance of the Qualified Allocation Plan’s prohibition from requesting an extension of the placed in service date for the Development prior to the last quarter of 2007, obtain a reservation for allocation for the subsequent year, and obtain an extension of the December 31, 2007 placed in service date ("Placed-in-Service Date") to December 31, 2008. See Rules 67-48.002(83) and 67-48.025, Florida Administrative Code (collectively the "Rules"), and Qualified Allocation Plan at ¶ 11. In support of its Petition, Reliance-Andrews states as follows:

1. Pursuant to Section 120.542, Fla. Stat.(2001) and Rules 28-104.001 through 28-104.006, F.A.C., Reliance-Andrews requests a waiver of Rule 67-48.002(83), Florida Administrative Code, and a variance of Paragraph 11 of the Qualified Allocation Plan ("QAP") to allow the return of its 2005 Housing Credit Allocation, obtain a reservation of allocation for 2008, and to extend the Placed-in-Service Date prior to the last quarter of 2007.
2. The name, address, telephone and facsimile numbers for Reliance-Andrews and its qualified representative are:

4. Reliance-Andrews timely submitted its Universal Application for competitive Housing Credits under the 1261 Income Housing Tax Credit program (“LIHTC Program” or “HC Program”) pursuant to the 2005 Combined Rental Cycle Program. See Application Number 2005-116C.

5. Equity raised from Housing Credits will be used for construction of a new development of 167 low-income family housing tax credit units known as Flagler Point (the “Development”). The Development will serve low income and elder families in Fort Lauderdale, Broward County, Florida.
6. On December 1, 2005, the Corporation issued its Preliminary Allocation of Housing Credits reserved in the amount of $2,368,500.00. A true and correct copy of the Preliminary Allocation Certificate - Housing Credit ("Preliminary Allocation Certificate") is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

7. As permitted by Rule 67-48.028, F.A.C., Reliance-Andrews applied for a carryover of the Housing Credits. The Corporation granted the carryover pursuant to a Carryover Allocation Agreement between Reliance-Andrews and the Corporation, effective December 20, 2005. A true and correct copy of the Carryover Allocation Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit B. As a result, the Placed-in-Service Date for the Development is December 31, 2007.

8. Consequently, it is anticipated that there will be a Final Housing Credit Allocation granted to Reliance-Andrews in accordance with the Corporation’s usual final allocation procedures.

9. Numerous factors that were and are outside Reliance-Andrews’ control, including the impact of Hurricanes Wilma and Katrina in 2005, have delayed the development process. As a result of these delays, Reliance-Andrews may be unable to complete the Development before the Placed-in-Service Date.

10. As set forth more fully below, Reliance-Andrews seeks to now return the 2005 Housing Credit Allocation, a prerequisite for obtaining a reservation of allocation for the subsequent year, at this time, rather than wait to the last calendar quarter of 2007 as required under the QAP, obtain a reservation for allocation in the same amount, and obtain an extension of the Placed-in-Service Date.
11. The requested waivers and variance will not adversely affect the Development. A denial of the Petition would (a) result in substantial economic hardship to Reliance-Andrews; (b) deprive Fort Lauderdale of essential affordable rental units; and (c) violate principles of fairness.

12. Rule 67-48.025 requires that distributions of Housing Credits “shall be in accordance with the Corporation’s Qualified Allocation Plan.”

13. Rule 67-48.002(83) defines QAP as follows:

“QAP” or “Qualified Allocation Plan” means, with respect to the HC Program, the 2005 Qualified Allocation Plan which is adopted and incorporated herein by reference, effective upon approval by the Governor of the state of Florida, pursuant to Section 42(m)(1)(B) of the IRC and sets forth the selection criteria and the preferences of the Corporation for Developments which will receive Housing Credits.

14. The 2005 QAP provides that Housing Credits may be returned only the last calendar quarter of the year in which a development is required to be placed in service:

where a development has not been placed in service by the date required or it is apparent that a development will not be placed in service by the date required [December 31, 2007], such failure is due to circumstances beyond the Applicant’s control, and the Applicant has returned its housing credit allocation in the last calendar quarter of the year in which it was otherwise required to be placed in service, the Corporation may reserve allocation in an amount not to exceed the amount of credits returned, and may allocate such housing credits to the Applicant for the year after the year in which otherwise required to be placed in service provided [certain] conditions have been met.

2005 QAP at ¶ 11 (emphasis added).

15. The applicable Rules for which waivers are requested are implementing, among other sections of the Florida Housing Finance Corporation Act (the “Act”), the statute that created the Housing Credits Program. See § 420.5099, Fla Stat. (2003). The Act designates the Corporation as the State of Florida’s housing credit agency within the meaning of Section

1 The Florida Housing Finance Corporation Act is set forth in Sections 420.501 through 420.516 of the Florida Statutes. (the “Act”). See also Rule 67-40.020(1), F.A.C.
42(h)(7)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. As the designated agency, the Corporation is responsible for and is authorized to establish procedures for the allocation and distribution of low-income housing tax credits ("Allocation Procedures"). §§ 420.5099(1) and (2), Fla. Stat. (2003). Accordingly, the Rules subject to Reliance-Andrews' waiver request are implementing, among other sections of the Act, the statutory authorization for the Corporation's establishment of Allocation Procedures for the HC Program. §§ 420.5099(1) and (2), Fla. Stat. (2003).

16. The requested Rule waivers will ensure the availability of Housing Credits which might otherwise be lost as a consequence of development delays caused by factors outside Reliance-Andrews' control. These factors include the devastating impact of Hurricane Wilma.

17. The following facts demonstrate the economic hardship and other circumstances which justify Reliance-Andrews' request for Rules waivers:

   a. Reliance-Andrews timely submitted its 2005 Universal Application for the Corporation's Housing Credits Program.

   b. Thereafter, the Corporation issued its Preliminary Allocation Certificate.

   c. The Preliminary Allocation reserved $2,368,500.00 for Housing Credits.

   d. As a result of the Carryover Allocation Agreement, the Placed-in-Service Date for the Development is December 31, 2007.

   e. On October 24, 2005, Hurricane Wilma struck the South Florida area, and as a result of the damage caused, Broward County was declared a major disaster area.

   f. Because local government had to address and resolve critical and emergency matters impacting the safety, health and welfare of its citizens, government personnel was not available to attend meetings or otherwise consider issues relating to the Development.

   g. As a consequence of Hurricane Wilma, Reliance-Andrews' development process, as well as numerous other projects in the Fort Lauderdale area, have been significantly delayed.
h. The impact of Hurricane Wilma and Hurricane Katrina on the construction industry further delayed the development process. As a consequence of the substantial increase in construction costs resulting, in part, by the scarcity of both building materials and laborers, Reliance-Andrews had to re-budget the Development.

i. In light of the initial delays due to the 2005 Hurricanes, and having entered the 2006 hurricane season, Reliance-Andrews' tax-credit investor has serious concerns about whether the Development will meet the Placed-in-Service Date.

j. The Development has remarkable community support and has received final site plan approval. Demolition is scheduled to commence in June and July and, provided that it receives the requested rule waiver, should close on the tax-credit partnership and commence construction in August 2006.

k. Reliance-Andrews has continued to proceed with the pre-development process and has met the 10% test under Paragraph 5.b. of the Carryover Agreement.

l. The rule waiver sought herein will allow Reliance-Andrews to request an extension of the Placed-in-Service Date without having to wait until the last quarter of 2007.

m. A denial of the requested waiver would result in a substantial economic hardship to Reliance-Andrews. Without the assurance that the Placed-in-Service Date is extended to December 31, 2008, Reliance-Andrews’ tax-credit investor has indicated its unwillingness to take the risk of closing on the tax credit partnership, funding the initial capital contribution and commencing construction. This could result in the inability to obtain critical financing necessary to provide 167 apartment rental units that are needed for low income families and the elderly in Fort Lauderdale, Broward County, Florida.

18. As demonstrated above, the requested Rule waivers serve the purposes of Section 420.5099 and the Act, as a whole, because one of their primary goals is to facilitate the availability of decent, safe and sanitary housing in the State of Florida to low-income persons and households by ensuring:

the maximum use of available tax credits in order to encourage development of low-income housing in the state, taking into consideration the timeliness of the application, the location of the proposed housing project, the relative need in the area for low-income housing and the availability of such housing, the economic feasibility of the project, and the ability of the applicant to proceed to completion of the project in the calendar year for which the credit is sought.

19. Further, by granting the requested Rule waivers, the Corporation would recognize principles of fundamental fairness in the development of affordable rental housing. This recognition would promote participation by experienced developer entities, such as Reliance-Andrews, in meeting the purpose of the Act, regardless of the possible delays from hurricanes and other factors outside their control.

20. The requested Rule waivers and variances will not adversely impact the Development or the Corporation.

21. The waivers and variances being sought are permanent in nature.

Should the Corporation require additional information, Reliance-Andrews is available to answer questions and to provide any additional information necessary for consideration of this Petition for Waiver of the QAP’s prohibition from returning Housing Credit allocations and requesting an extension of the Placed-in-Service Date for the Development prior to the last quarter of 2007.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner Reliance-Andrews Associates, Ltd., respectfully requests that the Corporation:

A. Grant the Petition and all the relief requested therein;

B. Waive the 2005 Qualified Allocation Plan’s prohibition from requesting an extension of the Placed-in-Service Date for the Development prior to the last quarter of 2007;

C. Grant an extension of the placed in service date from December 31, 2007 to December 31, 2008; and
D. Grant such further relief as may be deemed appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

RE: 2005 Carryover Qualification Documentation Section 42(b)(1)(E), IRC, as Amended

1. Enclosed please find the necessary documentation for qualifying for a 2005 housing credit carryover allocation for your development. In addition, the Carryover exhibits have been provided on disc for your convenience.

2. It is absolutely critical that you fully and accurately complete the documentation and submit it to Florida Housing as soon as possible. All documentation must be correct and received by Florida Housing no later than 5:00 P.M. on Friday, December 16, 2005. Failure to meet this deadline may result in the loss of credits reserved for your project.

3. All critical data about the development must be properly set forth in this documentation and must be as reflected in the application and credit underwriting analysis. Any changes must have received Florida Housing approval and be documented in Exhibit F. This critical data includes, but is not limited to, the development name, set-aside commitments, total project costs, owner entity, and amount of housing credit allocation. Please call the Housing Credit staff to discuss any changes before using this form.

4. Section 4 of the Carryover Allocation Agreement includes the commitment for the Extended Use Period.

5. You are required to submit verification evidencing satisfaction of carryover requirements to Florida Housing WITH the carryover documentation (See Section 5).

6. If you elect to lock-in the credit percentage rate, make certain the lock-in rate is reflected on Exhibit A of the carryover documentation.
7. Complete Exhibit D of the carryover documentation and submit it with the Carryover Allocation Agreement. In the event that the “10% Requirement” is not met at the time of submission, Exhibit D should be completed with the current figures and may be signed by the Owner; the certification form must not be completed. All of Exhibit D, must then be resubmitted within 6 months from the date of the Carryover and the “10% Requirement” must be met at that time. The Cost Basis Certification, Exhibit D page 2, must also be signed by a CPA or an Attorney at that time.

8. Florida Housing will not execute the Carryover Allocation Agreement until it receives a market study for the proposed Development from its assigned credit underwriter. Please check with your credit underwriter to ensure that Florida Housing receives a copy. The Carryover Allocation Agreement is not a binding agreement unless executed by Florida Housing.

9. Contact the housing credit staff with any questions that you may have when completing the documentation. Carefully proof read your completed documentation before submitting it to Florida Housing.

The fee for the inspections is to be billed directly to the Applicant at $139 per hour not to exceed $1,391 per inspection. A Carryover Review Checklist has been included to aid you in completing your Agreement. It is the same checklist used by FHFC Housing Credit staff to ensure the accuracy of your submission.

1. WE ONLY ACCEPT ORIGINALS.

2. Check Applicant Name (partnership, corporation, etc.) and Project Name (Pages 1 and 2, applicant signature page and top of each exhibit page). See #10 for instructions regarding a request for changes.

3. Check all of the following items in Pages 1 through 8 to make sure they have been completed by Applicant:

4. Exhibit A, Building-by-Building Breakdown. B1Ns should have already been inserted. If this is a partial binding from a previous year the first year B1Ns are used. Check all columns to make sure they are complete and that the information is correct. Check calculations to make sure the Eligible Basis multiplied by the Applicable Percentage equals the Qualified Basis and that the Qualified Basis multiplied by the Credit Rate equals the Housing Credit per Building. If the Eligible Basis calculates to an amount of credit greater than what was originally allocated, the Eligible Basis should be reduced until the calculations equate to the correct allocation amount.

Applicants who do not choose to lock in a rate must submit their executed Lock-In Agreement with the “no election” box checked. Check the form to see what their election is. If they choose to lock-in verify that they have entered the correct rate and date according to the lock-in period elected and that the document has been properly executed.
