Intended Source: RCL Consulting and Management, Inc.

Price: $89,830

Justification for Single Source Acquisition:

The Housing Finance Agency Innovation Fund for the Hardest Hit Housing Markets (“Hardest Hit Fund” or “HHF”) is a federal program that Florida Housing has had for over four years now. The program is set to end on December 31, 2017.

Florida Housing has contracted with Lainie Lowery of RCL Consulting, Inc., since September, 2010 to provide assistance with both the implementation and continued management of each of the five separate programs that make up Florida’s total HHF Program. These four years of experience have given Ms. Lowery a unique skill set that we are unable to procure from any other person. These skills include:

- The detailed knowledge of and the continued development and management of the Florida-specific Hardest-Hit Fund databases provided by the vendor CounselorDirect. This includes development of two application portals to be used by the residents of Florida with a coinciding interface to be utilized by contract advisors during eligibility determinations, an underwriting database used by staff and contracted underwriters for review of all files, and a reporting database.
- The ability to effectively use the Florida-specific CounselorDirect system to create and reconcile Quarterly Performance Reports (QPR) required by the U.S. Treasury.
- Both the historical and continuing knowledge and ability to effectively communicate with mortgage loan servicers about Florida-specific HHF programs and the ability to complete the Common Data File and transmit it to servicers in order to effectuate the transfer of HHF funds on behalf of qualified borrowers.
- Both the historical and continuing knowledge to revise current Florida-specific HHF programs or implement new programs as may be necessary from time to time. Such changes, when they occur, include assistance with revising or creating term sheets, policies, procedures and rules as well as training all appropriate staff and contractors.
- Both the historical and continuing knowledge to prepare for and participate in compliance reviews and audits conducted by various state and federal agencies with oversight of HHF and Florida Housing.
