

From: Barry Goldmeier <bgoldmeier@gmail.com>

Date: July 12, 2017 at 11:49:41 PM EDT

To: ken.reecy@floridahousing.org

Subject: Public Comment

Mr. Reecy:

I would like to suggest that additional points be awarded to Elderly projects that include ALF type services. This should not be a requirement but if a developer seek to provide these services in any form they should be given a priority to receive funding because the services represent an additional financial burden and the FHFC should compensate for that burden by assisting in the lowering of the fixed operating cost in the form of substituting tax credits for mortgage debt.

Barry Goldmeier
305-984-3595