Subject: Due dates - RFAs

Hello Marisa – First, I hope you and your family are all healthy and remain so.

I was wondering if there is any chance of an extension of the deadlines for the homeless, disabling and workforce RFAs? We all appreciate the fact that we do not need ability to proceed forms, but with so many people now working from home the other processes are slowing down. The third party commitments for LIHTC and Debt are taking longer due to the fact that those institutions are going through their own upheaval and turn-around time is not what it is normally.

Just thought I'd check and again, I hope you and your family are well.

Stay safe,
Debbie
